United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

Dear Styles:

I saw the attached story by Jack Steele in the Daily News of January 7. I am sure you will let me know if you have any points about the Agency's work on which you feel, as Chairman of the Appropriations Committee or otherwise, I can properly be of help. Also, if Jack Steele's list of complaints really conforms to worries you may have, I should appreciate knowing it.

I am not writing because articles of this nature disturb me, but merely to be sure that those in the Congress who are directly concerned with my work here in the Agency, such as yourself, should have prompt and adequate information on anything that I can properly make available.

Faithfully yours,

(Signed) ALLEN W. DULLES
